

Phone (770) 364-6512 for Connie or (770) 992-1731 ext. 4 for Gwen

E-mail connie@interpretingtimespast.com or gwen@bullochhall.org

Website <http://www.cmhuddleston.com/itp-press.html> (High resolution images available at this web address)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

15 September 2016 | Roswell, Georgia.

Visit <http://www.cmhuddleston.com/itp-press.html> for contact details, review copies, photos, and an author bios.

“BETWEEN THE WEDDING & THE WAR” AVAILABLE 5 OCTOBER 2016

Between the Wedding and the War continues the true saga of two families, the northern Roosevelts and the southern Bullochs. For seven years letters flowed between the Bulloch and Roosevelt families capturing a poignant time of upheaval foreshadowed by war. The letters tell of births, deaths, love, religion, and business and follow Martha Bulloch and two of her remaining unwed children North. While stories of family journeys convey the spirit of America’s expansion and growth, stories about the home front reveal two different cultures. In the midst of it all, a president is born.

The first volume in this historic saga series is Mittie & Thee: An 1853 Roosevelt Romance. It contains the letters exchanged by Mittie Bulloch in Georgia and Theodore Roosevelt in New York during their courtship and the planning of their December wedding. The third volume, Divided Only by Distance & Allegiance (due October 2017), presents the war year letters and journals.

Connie M. Huddleston, a professional historian and historic preservation consultant has researched the Bulloch family for more than ten years. This is her first book on the Bulloch family, however, three more are in progress. This is her fourth history volume.

Gwendolyn I. Koehler, a former educator and the current Education Director at Bulloch Hall has researched Bulloch/ Roosevelt family connections for twelve years. This book is the first volume of a set of three and is her second book.

-ENDS-

For More Info, Contact:

Connie Huddleston: (770) 364-6512: connie@interpretingtimespast.com

Gwen Koehler: (770) 992-1731: gwen@bullochhall.org